A brief description of our itinerary and what is included in the rate.

The safari starts on the booked day at 12 noon, meeting point is the National Park entrance gate. You are then taken to camp for a late lunch, followed by an afternoon safari. You will be back to camp in time for a relaxing sundowner and dinner under the stars. Next morning the game drive starts at the crack of dawn so you will see the abundance of wildlife at sunrise. You are back to camp for a leisurely breakfast, relax around camp or are taken on a stroll by our experienced trackers. After lunch we will take you for the afternoon game drive.

The safari ends on the day of departure after an early game drive and breakfast, so that you are back at the park entrance before noon.

The rate per person is net per night, all inclusive, i.e.

- Park entrance fees
- Tracker fees
